

Faculty Policy Committee Report 11/16/2017

Review of the CES survey-sent out to faculty by Sam Giordanengo on November 7th and participation requested by the end of the day on November 15th

The CES survey results showed 51 participants

There were two questions proposed that were created at Leeward CC.

The first asked:

How would you rate the overall quality of this course? Scoring: Very Poor, Poor, Average, Good, Excellent-
Highest score of 37.3%

How would you rate the overall effectiveness of this course? Scoring Very Poor, Poor, Average, Good, Excellent-
Lowest score of 27.5%

This course helped advance my educational goals. Scoring: Strongly disagree, Disagree, Neutral, Agree, Strongly agree-Second highest score of 35.3%

The second asked:

Should the open ended question "Other Comments" be included as a campus level question on all course?

Yes-70.6%

No-29.4%

The following level one-Campus questions were included as option 3

1. The learning environment supported my ability to communicate in a variety of situations
2. My experience in this course has developed my critical thinking and problem solving skills
3. The course has supported me to contribute to my community in ways that are respectful of Hawai'i Island culture and the wider global community
4. I have learned about campus services and resources to support my college success and life-long learning
5. I felt that the course provided a safe, healthy, and respectful learning environment

Yes I want to use all these 5 HawCC questions in level I Campus questions-31.4%

No I prefer a single question in Option 1 and possibly an open ended question-68.6%

Question 4 asked who should receive the results from CES

All results will be shared w/each division chair-Highest score of 39.2%

Results for non-tenured faculty only will be shared w/ division chair-13.7%

Each division may decide to share results w/ division chair-Second highest score of 37.3%

No results will be shared w/ division chair-9.8%

Review of results and report for Faculty Senate meeting tomorrow at 2pm.

- The Faculty Policy committee members were pleased that there were 51 responses to the CES Survey.
- The committee has no preference about the order of the Likert scale scoring (Very poor first or Excellent first) and will leave that decision up to the Academic Senate.
- The committee submits the CES Survey to the Senate for review.
