Course description from the COR:
	Course Learning Outcome (CLO)	Supplementary Alignment with Course Objective (CO)	Supplementary Alignment with Course Topic
	Hawaiian, Asian, and Pacific Issues (HAP) Hallmark
	1. The content should reflect the intersection of Asian and/or Pacific Island cultures with Native Hawaiian culture.
	2. A course can use any disciplinary or multidisciplinary approach provided that a component of the course uses assignments or practica that encourage learning that comes from the cultural perspectives, values, and world views rooted in the experiences of people indigenous to Hawai'i, the Pacific, and/or Asia.
	3. A course should include at least one topic that is crucial to an understanding of the histories, or cultures, or beliefs, or the arts, or the societal, or political, or economic, or technological processes of these regions; for example, the relationships of societal structures to the natural environment.
	4. A course should involve an in-depth, intersectional analysis or understanding of the issues being studied in the hope of fostering multicultural respect and understanding.
